A Weird Place to Find the Most Amazing Hamburger...

Hurry, because at the end of the month it's gone!

Dear Hamburger Gourmet,

Have you ever wondered how a German hamburger would taste? What would a Bavarian bun be like, or a meat patty from Munich or any of the other parts that make up a world class burger?

Imagine climbing aboard Air Lufthansa and jetting halfway around the world, all in search of the perfect German hamburger. After touch down in Hamburg you make your way to the heart of the city where they are known to combine all of these amazing pieces together into a single stunning sandwich...

But what if we could go someplace right now...right here in central Florida where you could get all of this without ever having to leave your hometown? None of the hassles of international travel but all the flavor of Germany in a single hamburger... would you be interested?

Start with the bun, made only from the finest PRETZEL dough, you got it, the bun tastes just like – in fact it is – a soft warm pretzel.

The twin patties are hot off the grill with seasoning that is perfect but not quite identifiable. You taste the unmistakable flavor of onions gilled grilled right into the patties, but there's something else...it's the mustard. It's been grilled with the hamburger to give it a flavor that is uniquely German.

But we're not done yet, you can't have an amazing gourmet hamburger without cheese and this one has the perfect complement to our German delight, a generous portion of Swiss.

Almost done, but not quite... our hamburger is topped with a sumptuous pile of Black Forest Ham.

Now for most diners this is enough but I want to take you one delicious step further. When we order our meal I instruct the server to put the special touch on ours...just enough sauerkraut to create the perfect finish.

Do I have your attention? Are you ready to jump in the car and follow me to this incredible restaurant? The meal it self is already getting rave reviews on a variety of food websites. Famed movie reviewer, Roger Eggbert proclaims it one of his favorites. And personally everyone in my family is a huge fan.

There are a couple of things I need to mention though. First is the cost of the meal. While I'm sure you're ready to pay any price for this incredible sandwich the truth is that it's...only...well $5.49!

This leads to the other problem. I'm sure you're expecting this delightful meal to only be available in the finest establishments, one with an exceptional German atmosphere. But the ambience of this restaurant...uh... well, there isn't any. How embarrassing. It's a fast food restaurant!

So are you going to let the fact that it is good...and cheap... and available everywhere stop you from indulging in this fantastic delight? I'm not!

There is one thing that might stop you though, time! Did I mention it's called the October Fest Hamburger and is only available during the month of, you got it, October, and only at The Hamburger Store?

So why wait, lets go tomorrow evening for dinner!
